To

The Hon'ble President
MES Builders Association of India
Headquarters MES BAI, New Delhi

Subject: Non-participation in the Special Council Meeting – Declaration of its Illegitimacy

Respected Sir,

I am writing this letter in my capacity as an office bearer at the Headquarters of MES BAI for the term 2023–2025, to formally express my objection and non-participation in the Special Council Meeting convened under your direction.

It is both unfortunate and deeply concerning that such an important step has been taken unilaterally, without convening an Executive Body meeting, and without obtaining the consent or mandate of the Governing Body, as mandated under the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Association.

This action stands in clear violation of the principles of collective decision-making and undermines the democratic ethos that governs our institutional framework. A decision of this nature, especially during an active electoral period, cannot be vested solely in the discretion of the President.

Accordingly, I declare the said meeting to be procedurally invalid, unconstitutional, and illegitimate, and I shall not be participating as a mark of principled protest against this undemocratic action.

I sincerely urge that future decisions of such importance be taken with due process, transparency, and the collective wisdom of the governing bodies, in keeping with the values and legacy of MES BAI.

With due respect,
Yours sincerely,

(Prasanta Mahanta)
Hony. Jt. General Secretary
Office Bearer (2023–2025)
